

CENTRE FOR NORTH-WEST REGIONAL STUDIES
in conjunction with Cumberland & Westmorland Antiquarian & Archaeological Society
Saturday 25 April 2009

CUMBRIAN IDENTITIES : a one-day conference

PLEASE NOTE SPECIFIC BOOKING CONDITIONS ON THE BACK OF THIS PROGRAMME

Please note: Closing date for bookings is 30 March 2009**

Venue: University of Cumbria, Ambleside Campus (maps will be sent out with booking receipts)

- 9.00 – 9.30 am Assemble in foyer outside Percival Lecture Theatre for tea/coffee & biscuits
- 9.30 – 9.45 Chairman's opening remarks
- 9.50 – 10.40 Northern identities: the Cumbrian dimensions, Professor John K. Walton, Institute of Northern Studies, Leeds Metropolitan University
- 10.40 - 11.10 Coffee/tea & biscuits
- 11.15 – 12.05 People to region: the problem of early medieval Cumbrian identities, Charles Phythian-Adams, Professor Emeritus and University Fellow at the Centre for English Local History, University of Leicester
- 12.10 – 1.00 One region or many? Naming patterns and regional identity in pre-industrial Cumbria, Dr Angus Winchester, Department of History, Lancaster University
- 1.00 – 2.10 Lunch (there is an optional lunch available, which is pre-bookable at a cost of £11.00. MENU: Cooked ham, selection of cheeses, pickles, relishes & celery; olives, tomatoes, mixed leaf salad, rice salad, quiche, selection of freshly baked breads, orange juice (but NOT tea or coffee).
(The buffet lunch must be pre-booked, and will be served in the cafeteria. Those people who wish to bring their own lunch are welcome to eat this in the Lecture Theatre. We have been asked to point out that because there are so few people on campus on Saturdays, there will only be a very limited quantity of hot or cold food available to buy in the cafeteria.)
- 2.10 – 3.00 Collingwood, Rawnsley, and the Scandinavian Legacy, Dr Matthew Townend, Centre for Medieval Studies, University of York
- 3.00 - 3.30 Tea/coffee & biscuits
- 3.30 - 4.20 Manufacturing identities. Industrialisation and the formation of modern Cumbria, Dr Richard Newman, President, Cumberland & Westmorland Antiquarian & Archaeological Society
- 4.25 pm Close of conference

Fee: £24.00 (£23.00 for Friends of the Centre & members of CWAAS)

FREE PARKING PERMITS FOR THE UNIVERSITY OF CUMBRIA, AMBLESIDE CAMPUS, ARE AVAILABLE FROM RECEPTION FOR THOSE ATTENDING THIS EVENT

Cumbrian Identities - Saturday 25 April 2009

Please note: Closing date for bookings is 30 March 2009**

Name:

Address:

Daytime telephone number:

How did you hear of this event/receive this form?: -----

Please reserve _____ place(s) at £24.00 (or £23.00 for Friends of the Centre & members of CWAAS).

Please book _____ lunches at £11.00 per head

I enclose a cheque/P.O. for _____ (Cheques payable to Lancaster University). Please return to Christine Wilkinson, CNWRS, Fylde College, Lancaster University, Bailrigg, Lancaster LA1 4YF

We also accept credit card payments (excluding American Express & Diners Club):

CARD NUMBER:----- EXPIRY DATE: -----

CARD TYPE: ----- ISSUE NUMBER (IF SWITCH/MAESTRO): _____ &/OR:

FROM DATE: ----- LAST 3 DIGITS ON SIGNATURE STRIP: -----

(You will be sent a credit card receipt)

MAPS WILL BE SENT OUT WITH BOOKING RECEIPTS